Elves come to rescue of pothole-hit sleigh

BY KATHRYN CAIN
editor@lsmmedia.co.uk

BY some miracle Father Christmas manages to deliver presents to good little girls and boys the world over every single year - but this time his efforts were very nearly thwarted after his sleigh hit a pothole.

When the jolly ol' fella himself was out with his elves from Barton le Clay Rotary Club on Tuesday night collecting money for local charities, his magic chariot hit a hole in Bedford Road and it looked like Christmas would be cancelled.

Lucky for him, the community in Barton le Clay were not going to give up that easily and rallied around to fix the sleigh to make sure he could get back out on the road - and skies.

James Knight from the rotary club said Santa and his sleigh were only out on their second collection night of the festive season when the axle and a wheel were damaged by the crater.

When villagers heard of the problem many came straight to the rescue with Steve Appleby from Steve's Tyres and Andy Smith from Lovell and Smith Motor Services offering to work around the clock to get it fixed free of charge.

James said: "Since 2007 Barton le Clay residents have donated more than £11,000 to support Barton Rotary's Santa's Sleigh goal in sponsoring young people in the village, the annual seniors' Christmas lunch and the air ambulance charities.

"We all love doing this every year because it is not only for some great charities but also great to see the children so excited and happy. But this year while we were helping others, we found that Santa needed help himself.

CHRISTMAS IS SAVED: Members of the community in Barton le Clay rallied round to fix Santa's sleigh free of charge and in record time after it hit a pothole while the rotary club were out collecting for local charities and causes in the village on Tuesday night

"In fact while the sleigh was sitting on a rotarian's driveway waiting to be repaired the kids living down the street asked their mum what Santa was going to do.

"Both Steve and Andy are not Rotary members, however generously waived their fees, which also demonstrates what a wonderful community this is to live in."

A spokesman for Central Bedfordshire Council said: "Though it is unfortunate that Father Christmas' sleigh had a mishap in Barton-le-Clay on Tuesday evening, we'd like to commend the villagers for showing some festive spirit to save the day and avoid any disappointment.

"This particular pothole is behind an access kerb line and hadn't previously been reported to us but will go on our list for repairs.

"We know that this is an important time of year on the roads for everyone - not just Santa - and always have a team on standby, ready to salt the roads if it is expected to be icy or snowy."

Luton is the worst hit in the county by council cuts

PUBLIC services face being squeezed again after the latest round of council funding cuts revealed Luton will be the worst hit in the county.

Luton Borough Council's funding for 2015/16 will be cut by 15.5 per cent, or £14.9m, figures released this week by the Department for Communities and Local Government revealed.

By comparison, Bedford will have its funding cut by 13 per cent and Central Bedfordshire's will fall by 12.3 per cent.

Despite this, the government says the actual cut to funds will be around 1.8 per cent. It uses a measure called 'spending power' - which takes into consideration other ways councils generate money, such as council tax, business rates and other fees - to calculate this.

Luton fares badly in this sense too, feeling a hit of around three per cent.

A spokeswoman for Luton Borough Council said: "The announcements do not include the education services grant, or the new burdens funding in relation to extra duties on local authorities to look after children in care for longer.

"Until we have the information on those grants, we cannot make a fully informed comment on the settlement overall.

"Luton's spending power reduction is stated to be 2.9 per cent, significantly above the average."

NHS Luton CCG is bringing you some seasonal information to help keep you and your family healthy this winter

Norovirus

Norovirus is often referred to as winter vomiting flu as it is more common during winter. Norovirus causes diarrhoea and vomiting and, although people can feel really unwell, medical attention is not normally needed. Norovirus can last for up to five days. People should tell a family member that you are unwell, stay at home, keep warm and drink plenty of fluids. If you need advice ring your GP surgery or, if your surgery is shut please phone 111. Please do not attend your surgery or the hospital as Norovirus spreads easily. It is important to maintain good hand hygiene to prevent other family members becoming ill. Wipe down all surfaces, door handles, taps and toilet flush systems with an antibacterial spray.

Visit your pharmacy

Sounds simple but visit your pharmacy. They offer a great local service. Pharmacists are well trained experts and are available close to your home, without an appointment and normally without much of a wait. Pharmacies can help with a range of common conditions and minor injuries, such as aches and pains, uncomplicated cystitis, colds and skin rashes. If you have one of these common conditions, your pharmacist can give advice and medicines, if appropriate.

They will also advise you about what to keep in your medicines cabinet- from pain relief to plasters. You can find out where your nearest pharmacy is by visiting www.lutonccg.nhs.uk

Flu

On average adults can expect two colds a year and children as many as 10. Sometimes bad colds can be mistaken as flu but here's how to tell the difference.

Flu's biggest symptom is a sudden high temperature of over 38 degrees Celsius and a sudden cough. Other symptoms include a headache, chills, aching muscles, limb or joint pain, sore throat, runny nose, sneezing, loss of appetite and diarrhoea or stomach upset.

With a cold, you may have some of the same symptoms but these will appear at different stages. Usually, with a cold adults will not have a high temperature but children might.

The best thing you can do is rest, drink plenty of fluids and help to ease sore throats with lozenges, mixtures or sprays. Make sure you check with your chemist whether any cold or flu remedies can be used with any medication you are already taking.

There are a number of pharmacies across the town that are able to offer you a flu jab. Certain people are eligible for a free flu jab, others can have the vaccine for a small fee. Speak to your pharmacist for more advice and information.

Make sure you keep warm this winter. By setting your heating to the right temperature (18-21) you can keep your home warm and your bills as low as possible.

If you need medical help, but it isn't a 999 emergency, ring 111 free of charge.

Get your flu jab. Some people are eligible for a free flu jab, to find out more visit www.nhs.uk/flu Get your children's immunisations up to date

Medicine Cabinet

As the temperature drops outside, you're probably digging out your hat scarf and gloves. However, have you also thought about stocking up your medicine cabinet so that you are prepared for the usual winter coughs, colds and bugs? Check your medicine cabinets to make sure you have the following basics to get you through the next few months:

- Your usual painkillers such as paracetamol, ibuprofen or aspirin
- Cold and flu remedies
- Anti-diarrhoea medicine
- Oral rehydration salts
- Indigestion remedies
- Plasters and bandages
- Thermometer
- Tissues

Don't drink alcohol on an empty stomach. Having a meal containing carbs, like pasta, will help to absorb the alcohol.

Stock up on your contraception and know where to get emergency contraception.

To help avoid hangovers try to drink a pint of water before bed and keep water nearby to sip at night if you wake up.

Layer your clothing to stay warm and wear good shoes with a grip if it's slippery outside.

Houghton man guilty of child porn offences avoids prison

BY JULIA SUTTON
 editor@lsnmedia.co.uk

A FORTY-YEAR-OLD man has avoided prison after being found with more than 2,000 indecent images of children stashed on his computer.

Anthony Brooks was handed a year long suspended prison sentence for the offences earlier this week.

At Luton Crown Court, Brooks, of Frogmore Road, Houghton Regis, pleaded guilty to eight offences in total.

These included making indecent photos, possessing an indecent photo of a child, possessing prohibited images of a child and possessing an extreme pornographic image.

The court heard Brooks had gone searching for the material on the internet.

Richard Jones, prosecuting, said that police acting on information went to his home on May 31 last year and seized computer equipment belonging to Brooks.

A forensic examination of the goods revealed what Brooks had been up to and the search terms he had used to locate the images.

The court was told the vast majority of the photos were of young girls aged 10 to 13.

However, some showed children between the ages of two and six.

When questioned by police, Brooks said he had been looking at adult porn and was not attracted to children.

He was given a 12 month jail sentence suspended for two years with two years supervision.

He was also ordered to carry out 200 hours of unpaid work and pay £840 towards the cost of the prosecution.

HOLIDAYS ARE HERE: Residents went to see the truck on Friday

Holidays are coming! Coca Cola truck rolls into town

HUNDREDS of residents turned out on Friday afternoon to greet the long-awaited and famous Coca Cola truck.

The vehicle, which also came last year, arrived in St George's Square at 1pm and stayed late into the evening as families and friends took pictures and enjoyed carols sung by a quartet accompanying the truck.

Coca-cola's 'Christmas helpers' were also on hand to serve chilled cans of coke and diet coke. Some residents took to the social media site Twitter to share their thoughts and pictures of the event.

Simone Givans Guy said: 'Soooo the #CocaColaTruck rolled up in my town centre and I just couldn't resist #LoveLuton', while Victoria Hughes said: 'Just hanging out with the @CocaCola @CocaCola truck in #Luton @TheMallLuton'.

LUTON MAN GUILTY OF ABH IN FATAL FIGHT

A MAN has been given a six month prison sentence for starting a fight which led to the death of tattoo artist Joseph Kent, but won't spend any more time behind bars.

Tariq Bostan, 28, of Sarum Road, Luton, rowed with Mr Kent, who was then hit by his brother Samir Bostan. He appeared for sentence having pleaded guilty on June 14 last year to two charges of causing actual bodily harm. Bostan will spend no more time in custody, due to having spent 116 days in prison and spending time on curfew.

MEN ARRESTED FOR TERRORISM OFFENCES

COUNTER-terror police officers arrested two men in Luton on Tuesday.

The men, aged 61 and 37 were arrested on suspicion of supporting a banned organisation under the Terrorism Act 2000.

The act lists 63 banned organisations for being "concerned in terrorism," making it a criminal offence to belong to them, or to support them in other ways such as giving them money.

Both men were taken to a Bedfordshire Police station and as of Friday remained in custody.

A6 crash victim was police staff

A MAN killed while riding his bike along the A6 in Barton le Clay earlier this week has been named as Mark Stagg.

Mr Stagg, 47, from Meppershall, who was a civilian member of staff at Bedfordshire Police.

He was killed when the bicycle he was riding collided with a Vauxhall Corsa on the southbound carriageway of the A6 at about 7.30am on Tuesday.

The driver of the Corsa suffered minor injuries in the collision.

Mr Stagg had worked for Bedfordshire Police as a member of civilian staff for a number of years.

Bedfordshire Police's Chief Constable Colette Paul was among the first to pay tribute, saying: "The tragic death of Mark is incredibly sad. He was highly regarded by all who worked with him and he will be greatly missed."

"My thoughts and heartfelt sympathy go out to his family and colleagues who knew and worked with Mark."

An inquest into Mr Stagg's death was due to be opened on Friday morning.

The collision caused the A6 to be closed until the afternoon on Tuesday.

The closure resulted in severe congestion along the road going into and out of Luton.

Anyone who witnessed the collision or has any information which could help the investigation is urged to call the Roads Policing Unit on 101.

Sweetest feeling for fundraising students

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.com

TWO high school pupils have raised over £3,500 to help former servicemen by selling jelly babies.

The pair chose to sell the human-shaped sweet because they were originally created to celebrate the end of the First World War and were named Peace Babies.

Stopsley High School pupils Harry Crouch, 14 and Harrison Barrett, 13, raised over three times the initial target they set themselves, raising £3,514.20 to be split between Help for Heroes and The Royal British Legion as part of their Duke of Edinburgh Bronze Awards.

On the fundraiser, Harry said: "We had an initial target of £1,000 which we didn't think we'd make and we absolutely smashed it. "I want to say thank you to everyone who supported us for their generosity."

FUNDRAISERS: Harry Crouch and Harrison Barrett sold bags of jelly babies to businesses and supermarkets

Harrison's mum, Jo Marshall said: "I'm so proud of both of them and all the support and donations they have received. It has made me really emotional to see how people have got behind them and what they are doing." The duo raised money by selling jelly babies in bags of 11, marking the time the First World War finished at 11am on November 11, 1914.

The pair presented a cheque for £1757.10 to the Royal British Legion at their club in Leagrave last Saturday.

They will present a cheque for the same amount to Help for Heroes at another ceremony.

Inquiry leads to exam 'changes'

BY CARL MUNGAZI
carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A SCHOOL has 'revisited' the way it conducts controlled assessments following an investigation into alleged malpractice on a GCSE course.

Inspectors from the OCR exam board conducted an investigation into Challney High School for Girls in Addington Way, Luton, after it received allegations about the school.

The matter is related to controlled assessments undertaken in the GCSE Science course. Students had to wait for their results whilst the inquiry was being completed but have they now all received them.

Luton council said this delay had not 'penalised or compromised' any students.

A source close to the school told Luton on Sunday an allegation that a teacher had been making

INVESTIGATION: OCR visited Challney following an allegation of malpractice changes to coursework for students in order for them to achieve a higher mark had been made.

Following this allegation, inspectors visited the school.

When contacted by this newspaper, OCR confirmed that they had been out to the site but a spokesman for the body said it could not release details of the investigation as this information was 'confidential'.

Luton council refused to provide further details of the allegation, or exact changes the school had made as a result of the OCR's investigation.

A spokeswoman for the authority said: "Allegations were made to the OCR awarding body regarding the Science GCSE at Challney High School for Girls."

"OCR conducted an investigation and as a consequence the school has revisited how controlled assessments are administered to ensure processes and procedures are fully conducted in line with the regulations.

"Although the Science GCSE results were delayed pending the outcome of the investigation, students were not penalised or compromised in any way and they have now received all of their GCSE grades."

Vigil for Peshawar victims

RESIDENTS in Luton will be holding a vigil this afternoon as a sign of support for the victims of the massacre in Peshawar, Pakistan.

Members from the Luton branch of the Pakistan Awami Tehreek (PAT) have issued an open invitation to the vigil taking place between 4-6pm outside the Town Hall. Seven Taliban militants killed 141 people, mostly children, during the attack on Tuesday afternoon before they were stopped and killed by the Pakistani military.

Mohamad Javed, 21, a university student from the PAT, said: "The vigil is just to show support to the families and to tell extremists that everyone is united against them, and that we don't want them."

He added that the organisers of the event were expecting people from all over the country to be in attendance and were finalising a list of speakers for the vigil.

Children and parents unite to learn about school's rich multi-faith in tasty celebration

A SCHOOL held a multi-faith day to celebrate the different cultures and faiths that exist within Luton.

On Tuesday, pupils and parents at Maidenhall Primary came together for the event, which has been described as a 'huge success'.

Parents arrived at the school wearing their traditional dress and came ready to share their holy books, special artefacts and food.

Pupils were given a chance to learn about other cultures through music, food, art and geography, and each year group was given the opportunity to take part in activities designed to teach them about a variety of faiths including Christianity, Hinduism, Judaism, Buddhism, Sikhism and Islam.

They discovered many similarities that exist between religions. A particular focus highlighted how light is used as a symbol in different faiths and festivals such as Diwali (Hindu), Eid (Islam), Christmas and Hanukkah (Jewish).

At the end 100 red balloons were released with the tags featuring images created by the children representing 'happiness and community'.

Fiona Byrne, Maidenhall's assistant headteacher, said: "It was such a privilege to learn so much about all the world faiths, from the mouths of our wonderful children. They worked hard all day undertaking a range of activities, to produce a fantastic presentation at the end of the day."

"It was also great to see many of our parents contributing to this event by preparing tasty dishes for us all to try and discussing their cultural backgrounds with our pupils."

A cook from Luton has been voted one of the best in the UK at the 2014 Curry Chef of the Year Awards.

Suruk Miah, head chef at Master Chef in Hart Lane, was one of 33 Chefs to receive official recognition for their contribution to the curry industry, which is worth more than £4.2 billion a year.

Guests at the event at the Lancaster Hotel in London included employment minister Esther McVey, Keith Vaz MP and former Secretary of State for Health, Frank Dobson MP.

Mr Miah said: "To win this title is the greatest vote of confidence I could wish for, not just for myself but for my team who work so hard to make things happen at the Master Chef Luton."

"The award will inspire us to keep improving our takeaway business and I'd also like to thank all our customers for their help putting us on the map."

Ms McVey said: "Small businesses are the lifeblood of the economy and it was great to celebrate the success of so many of those who are experts in their field."

"Congratulations to the deserving winners."

Two bailed after pensioner attack

BY NICK SMITHnick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

TWO boys have been bailed after four were arrested following an attack on a pensioner in Wardown Park.

The young men, two aged 15 and two aged 14 were arrested over the weekend in connection with the assault on Saturday, December 6, which left the 78-year-old man in hospital.

The man suffered serious head injuries in the attack, including a broken jaw and a bleed to the brain when he was attacked while walking his dog near the lake.

The four were arrested on suspicion of causing grievous bodily harm.

Three of the boys, the two aged 15 and one aged 14, answered bail on Wednesday.

Two will have no further action taken against them, while the third and the other 14-year-old - who cannot be named for legal reasons - have been bailed until January 28.

Detective Inspector Dani Fitzharris said: "We understand the park was busy at the time of the assault and would appeal to anyone who saw what happened to call police."

"I would also urge anyone who may have information about the attack, but has not yet come forward, to please do so."

Anyone with any information about the attack is urged to contact DI Fitzharris on 101.

CHAMPIONS: Luton Town were promoted this year

Banner chance for town's Hatters fans

MEMORABILIA marking Luton Town's return to the Football League has been offered to the public.

Luton council is giving residents a chance to own one of two banners which were on the open-top bus at LTFC's celebrations earlier this year.

The perfect Christmas gift for any Hatters' fan can be found by searching for 'Luton Town FC memorabilia' on eBay. The council is taking nominations for which local group or individual should receive the other.

Cowardly attack

REGARDING last week's article on the three young men who attacked a 78-year-old pensioner in Wardown Park at 3 pm on a Saturday fracturing his jaw and leaving him with a bleed to the brain.

What kind of 'person' would attack a frail pensioner walking his small dog - certainly the motive could not have been money or an expensive mobile phone.

Were they just evil or do they hate those who love dogs?

What a shame that a trained guard dog was not passing who could have been ordered to attack these cowards.

Let us hope that the gentleman makes a good recovery although sadly he will have lost confidence.

Hope the little dog is being well looked after.

Religion is 'mental illness'

I LARGELY agree with Rodney Giles letter last week that the Muslim response to atrocities... 'not in my name' is inadequate.

I'm not interested in which is the oldest religion, which he defines.

As an atheist I think all religion is a form of mental illness but as far as I am concerned until I see Muslims marching to protest about the slaughter of innocent journalists and aid workers in the same numbers that

Olly's New Year's resolution

I SEE our 'impartial' police commissioner has managed to fill up more column inches in this paper making yet another party political rant on behalf of the Labour Party. What part of the word 'impartial' does he not understand?

May I suggest that Mr Martins makes a New Year's Resolution to remember his pledge of impartiality and forget that he is, at heart, simply a washed up, wannabe politician?

Far better he invested in a high quality thinking cap and came up with some original ideas to justify the enormous sums of our money he is currently soaking up achieving absolutely nothing.

By which I mean absolutely nothing that wouldn't have been achieved without him and his money pit of an office.

Let's face it: serious crime and complaints against the police in Bedfordshire have both soared dramatically since he came on the scene.

A mere coincidence maybe, but had such things reduced I'd be willing to bet he'd be claiming direct responsibility.

We've had enough of this disastrous experiment with our police force.

The money it's cost would have been far better spent on recruiting more cops.

So I appeal to Mr Martins' better nature to do the only decent thing within his power - resign with immediate effect - and without compensation because Bedfordshire Police can put the money to far better use than spouting party political propaganda.

We must 'ignore' EDL

SO the EDL is on the rise again and wishes to draw attention to itself. And where better to do this than in Luton?

Sadly, though, the do-gooders are again unwittingly doing everything possible to make sure the EDL succeeds in its quest. Yes, they are planning a counter-march on the same day.

How naively stupid of them. They no doubt think they are retaliating but in reality they are cooperating fully with EDL's agenda. Surely it would be far better to ignore the EDL rather than grant them the oxygen of publicity. Holding a counter march also means all police leave will have to be cancelled in order to ensure the two groups are kept well apart. The last time this happened the cost ran over the £1m mark.

Wouldn't it be eminently more sensible if EDL were ignored? And if they really do carry out their provocative plan to march through Bury Park why don't the shoppers just turn their backs on the procession?

Images of hundreds of ordinary citizens totally disregarding a march past won't hit many headlines and won't do anything at all for the EDL's recruitment figures either.

And it would us cost a lot less, too.

Make some noise, Luton

LUTON is an ever growing place with a population of nearly 300,000, situated right on the trainline into London. We also have a university, a cathedral, a hospital, a football team, amongst many other things.

Why does Luton not have a major music venue? Places with lower populations such as Bournemouth and Hull have big music venues all up and down the country, but Luton does not.

People could access Luton from all over the country, less than an hour away from the capital and just over an hour away from our second largest city, Birmingham.

It's time Luton had one.

ON BOARD: Azizul and Mohammed with Katie

Demands made for better bus service

A PROSPECTIVE MP and council candidates have called for improved bus services to Crawley.

Conservative MP candidate Katie Redmond, along with council candidates for Crawley, Mohammed Saiful Islam and Azizul Ambia, are campaigning to improve the bus service to Hart Lane, Somerset Avenue and Devon Road. More than 300 residents have signed the petition since the route was reduced by Arriva.

Town good for car dependency levels

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

LUTON is one of the better places in the country to get around without a car, a new survey has found.

The Campaign for Better Transport's (CBT) car dependency report has rated towns and cities in England on their public transport provision and facilities for cycling and walking.

Out of 29 locations studied, Luton came 12th for accessibility and planning. London, Manchester and Liverpool were top in the same category whilst Colchester, Wigan and Peterborough were last.

Researchers focused on three other areas which were: bus and train quality and uptake (Luton came 23rd); cycling and walking as alternatives (Luton was 8th); driving and car use (the town came 15th).

The town was also ranked as being second for benefiting from the wider benefits of low car dependency such as low transport emissions and better health.

Among the recommendations made were that towns and cities could invest in 'light rail and guided buses where they can make an impact (such as the Busway in and around Luton)'.

Stephen Joseph, chief executive of the CBT, said 'most successful places in our research give people a choice in how you get around'.

SILVERWARE: Barclays said they want fans everywhere to see the trophy

Everyone wins after Premier trophy makes deposit at bank

FOOTBALL fans had the chance to see the Premier League Trophy up close this week when it visited Luton town centre.

Barclays in George Street arranged for residents to have their pictures taken with the trophy, which is currently held by Manchester City, on Wednesday.

The bank said its UK-wide tour of the trophy was designed to 'bring the most sought after prize in English football closer to fans'.

In addition to the tour, the bank also hosted a 'market day' where a number of businesses showcased their products and services. Cakes and refreshments were provided by the newly-opened Gelato Heaven ice cream parlour.

Creative quarter to benefit youth

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE chairman of a group of creative individuals and organisations has said he hopes a series of events planned for next year will help the town's youngsters.

Gavin O'Brien, head of the Made In Luton (MIL) collective, said the group wanted to create a 'creative identity' which would raise Luton town centre's profile.

MIL is made up of a number of creative companies based in and around the Hat Factory and Bute Street.

This year the group held workshops, festival and community events, but Gavin said plans to do even more next year were in place. These include an open studio festival, a mentoring programme and plans to install a free Wi-Fi connection in the area, as well joint-initiatives with the newly formed Luton Business District.

He said: "We want to continue to lobby for the creative arts and creative identity, and want to bring that into the creative quarter."

Mr O'Brien added: "The ultimate aim is to have kids that will not have to work as hard as we have done, and they do not have to literally pull up trees to make it work and that is our aspiration. We have a lot of good people in good places and people with good intentions with revolutionary ideas."

Help GREENUP this Christmas

We all create more waste over the holiday period. Glass, cans, Christmas trees, cards, wrapping paper and plastic are all thrown away in dustbins across the country.

With a little thought though, we can all limit the impact that we have on our environment – so why not make a special effort to try and minimise the amount of waste produced over the festive period?

Reduce

- When shopping for presents, choose reusable shopping bags or reuse carrier bags
- Do not overwrap gifts: use a Christmas stocking instead of paper for smaller gifts
- Did you know around a third of all the food we buy ends up being thrown away? Try to make a shopping list and remember to check your cupboards, fridge and freezer before you go shopping. For other tips go to www.lovefoodhatewaste.com

Reuse

- Cut up last year's Christmas cards to create your own unique gift tags!
- Choose a pot-grown tree, which you can replant in the garden and use again next year

Recycle

- Use your green bins for recycling any paper or cards that you dispose of over Christmas and the new year (not suitable for wrapping paper and cards that contain glitter or foil)
- A whole range of jars from cranberry sauce to mincemeat and baby food can all be recycled: just give them a rinse and recycle them in your black box or take them to the nearest bottle bank
- Squash fizzy drink bottles and cardboard packaging to make extra space in your recycling, or take any excess materials to your local recycling centre.

Garden Waste collections will be suspended from Friday 28 November 2014 (last collection) until week commencing Monday 2 March 2015. During that time please use the Household Waste Recycling Centres or home compost your garden waste.

Getting in spirit with gift of food

THE Luton unit of Cambridgeshire Community Services NHS Trust have changed the way they spread Christmas cheer this year.

Instead of sending each other cards, they filled a trolley with pasta, tins of baked beans and soup, long-life milk, tea, coffee and more to give to Luton Foodbank.

They are currently on their way to filling a second trolley with food to donate to the cause as well.

Cash crisis could see charity shut

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A CENTRE in Luton which supports deaf people across the county faces closure unless it can pay off a debt.

The Alban Neve Deaf Association (ANDA), in Old Bedford Road, was due to hold an event last night to raise £15,000 to pay off a rent debt on its premises.

The charity was established in 2004 to provide support for people with hearing loss and provide 'a range of services that will help with empowerment and social inclusion'.

It lost its council funding in 2010 and has since then been unable to generate revenues from other sources. As a result, it now faces having to close its operation.

Ruth Wooster, a volunteer manager at the centre, said: "We provide a very important service for deaf people and help prevent social inclusion and support via Pohwer (an advocacy group for charities). We also have a British Sign Language interpreter to help with issues they face in life like help with filling forms, communication and other things.

"If the centre closes there will be nowhere for deaf people to socialise with their own peers. They will face isolation, especially old deaf people, and there will be a lack of support for them."

United in preventing mental health crisis

LUTON council recently joined up with 22 organisations across Bedfordshire and Luton and signed a mental health crisis care concordat.

This essentially means that organisations from health, police, fire, local authorities, drug and alcohol support services and criminal justice have all made a commitment to preventing mental health crisis where possible, and to providing effective emergency response systems when a crisis does occur.

Together we will ensure that a system is in place whereby anyone who is in crisis due to a mental health condition is kept safe and found the appropriate support from whichever service they turn to first.

By signing the concordat we wanted to show a strong and united commitment to working closely together to improve outcomes for anyone experiencing mental health crisis.

I am also very pleased that the council has signed up to a zero tolerance to loan sharks charter.

Luton council leader Cllr Hazel Simmons talks about mental health, loan sharks and the Lighting Up Luton celebrations

We are currently working with the England Illegal Money Lending Team to make Luton a zero tolerance area for the unscrupulous activities of loan sharks.

Loan sharks prey on the most vulnerable in our society and use a campaign of fear and intimidation in carrying out their illegal activities.

Not only do loan sharks bring misery, despair and poverty to their victims, they also bring a whole range of criminality to communities causing an increase in crime, anti-social behaviour, vandalism and empty homes.

We as a council have a fantastic track record in investigating and prosecuting these unlicensed lenders and I am proud that we have now gone a step further by signing up to the charter.

It was wonderful to see thousands of local people brave the winter chill to enjoy a day of festivities at the annual Lighting Up Luton for Christmas event last week.

Families had fun throughout the day on the free ice skating rink in St George's Square and I know Hollyoaks fans were delighted to meet local lad Aaron Fontaine who came down especially to support his home town.

It was great to see him in a LTFC shirt.

The highlight of course was the twinkling light of the lantern parade led by members and users of Park Town Community Centre winding its way towards the Town Hall to begin the official lights switch on ceremony.

It was a brilliant night and I am glad everyone enjoyed it.

Finally, can I take this opportunity to wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a happy and safe New Year.

Christmas 2014

Contents

PUT the mobile down and step away from the tablet! I said, step away from the tablet!

It's Christmas and besides the tradition of eating, drinking and generally making merry it's the one time in the year when the whole family still gets together to settle down in front of the TV.

There's been something of a theme developing over the last few years on BBC 1 but then, it wouldn't be Christmas without Dr. Who now would it? Oh, no it wouldn't! And this year the Tardis is travelling to the North Pole and guest stars Father Christmas so it's not an alien concept; though aliens will no doubt feature.

If you can't stand Miranda Hart then look away now. Not only does she pop up as Chummy in the seasonally heart-warming episode of Call the Midwife but she's bringing her comedy series to a close this Christmas with a double helping of pratfalls and poignant moments to tickle the ribs and bring a tear to the eye.

There's barely time to nip out to the kitchen for mince pie and a glass of port before the credits roll on Downton Abbey. Lord Grantham and family get to experience Christmas themselves this year; and there's snow and everything! But don't expect things to go smoothly even though it is the season of goodwill to all men - and come to that, local servants, farm-workers and rustic peasants too!

But life still goes on outside of your four walls so check out our guide to what's on locally over the festive season. And because it's the time for giving, there's a present under the tree for you in our fabulous New Year, New You competition!

- 4 WIN a festive farm shop hamper stuffed with seasonal goodies
- 5 TV Guide to the very best of your Christmas viewing starts here
- 6 Job done, Santa's heading home to the North Pole. Catch up with him in Dr Who on BBC 1 at 6.15pm
- 10 Ring out the old, ring in the new, if you're staying home tonight, this is what you can view!
- 12 It's what's on near you if you're out and about

All that's left to say is... a very merry Christmas to you all and a happy New Year!

WIN a year's FREE membership to The Gym, Luton!

IN collaboration with Luton on Sunday, The Gym Luton is getting into the Christmas spirit and offering TWO lucky readers a one year membership to The Gym, located at The Galaxy Centre, Bridge Street.

The UK's fastest growing gym chain decided they wanted to give something back to the community, offering free memberships to two of our readers to help them get fit and get a kick start on those New Year resolutions.

The Gym Group's mission is to make health and fitness facilities accessible and affordable to everyone, and like the other 52 gyms in the group, The Gym Luton offers what members say they need and want: 24 hour access to brand new equipment in a fully refitted state of the art gym that is bright, clean and safe, exceptional customer service, all at prices as low as £10.99 a month with no commitment to a long term contract.

Nick Boxer, General Manager of The Gym Luton, said: "We've got lots of great classes lined up which are perfect for fitting in and around work hours. Offering flexible membership terms allows people to come and go as they please. We want to remove any barriers to fitness that people face and attract a whole new leisure market for example those on low incomes, students, retired people, shift workers and housewives, as well as affluent people who value the 24 hour opening and flexible membership terms."

To be in with a chance of winning please answer the following question:

Including the Luton branch, how many sites does The Gym have in the UK?

- A) 30
- B) 53
- C) 70

Send your answer to editor@lsnmedia.co.uk with The Gym in the subject line. Don't forget to include your name and a daytime telephone number.

Closing date for entries is noon on Monday, January 5.

Terms and Conditions Winners have until the end of March 2015 to approach The Gym to claim their prize. The competition to win one of two full memberships is open to anyone aged 18 or over. The editor's decision is final.

Lots to do in Luton 2014 comes to end

ROUND-UP

DESPITE pantomime season being well under-way, there is plenty more to do around Luton. The UK Centre for Carnival Arts is celebrating Kwanzaa on Sunday, December 28.

Kwanzaa is a family festival which honours African heritage and also looks at how to offer hope for the future.

Events start at 4.30pm and ends at 8.30pm. Tickets cost £4 per person and £12 for a family of four people (three children or two adults maximum).

Lea Singers will be performing their Charity Christmas Concert this Tuesday at Harpenden Public Halls.

The concert will include Christmas music, mulled wine, mince pies and a raffle to raise funds for Rennie Grove House Hospice Care.

Tickets are £15 or £5 for students/under 18s. A meal is included in the ticket price.

For those a bit more adventurous, you can explore Dunstable Downs' Winter Trail until January 1.

Admission is free and you can pick up a map and clues from the visitors' centre to help you along your way.

Hobbit finale? Now we're Tolkien

FILM REVIEW

THE HOBBIT: THE BATTLE OF FIVE ARMIES

Showing at Luton Cineworld

THE final instalment of Peter Jackson's The Hobbit trilogy ends on an epic high note after three hours of non-stop action and glorious special effects.

Bilbo Baggins, Thorin Oakenshield and the Company of Dwarves have reclaimed the mountain from the Dragon Smaug, but have unwittingly released a deadly force on the land.

The enraged beast sets his sights on the defenceless people of Laketown as Thorin sacrifices his friends and his honour to keep his reclaimed treasure. As Bilbo desperately tries to make him see reason the hobbit is forced to make a dangerous decision.

Peter Jackson has successfully concluded his drawn out saga of Tolkien's classic that packs just as much weight as The Return of the King. We finally get to see the destructive awe of Smaug and the epic battle scenes that the previous films have been building towards.

We're thrown straight in to the chaos as Smaug rains his fiery wrath down on Laketown, before the armies assemble and a non-stop ride of grand battles and one-on-one fights begin.

You might think little Bilbo would become lost among the sea of action, but Martin Freeman takes us on an emotional journey as Bilbo struggles to keep his friends alive while grappling with his own inner darkness.

Freeman's hobbit is delightfully engaging and likeable with clever little nuggets of humour lightening even the darkest mood.

He may not be the central character in this outing but his presence is certainly felt in every major scene.

The film builds to a gigantic battle of dwarves, elves, men, orcs and eagles all fighting for their claim of the unimaginable wealth deep in the mountain – each army a well-oiled machine moving fluidly to sharp commands.

But among all this Jackson still manages to squeeze in a dramatic romance between elf Tauriel and dwarf Kili, in a Romeo and Juliet tale which is certain to keep you hooked.

But it is Richard Armitage as Thorin who is the star of this film as he battles against a sickness caused by the piles of gold that have sent him mad with power and greed. As his paranoia grows it is up to the humble Bilbo to reach his friend and save him from himself.

After Jackson lost his storytelling footing in the previous film, he's definitely back on track here to deliver an engrossing story with non-stop combat that is a fitting end to the fantasy franchise.

If the answer is yes... Then the Advertising Sales Team would like you to work with them on four of the best read newspapers in the county and our associated websites.

Our Business Developers are full multi-media professionals offering clients a complete marketing strategy comprising print and digital display, SEO, social media and web-builds.

Are you outgoing and confident? Have experience in a Field Sales role? We currently need such individuals who can work well with others, enjoy involvement, have good persuasive skills and heaps of enthusiasm.

We Offer:

- Up to £22,000 per year basic • A generous bonus structure • Great potential for career development
- 25 days holiday per year • Regular training • Strong support from your team and your manager
- Contributory pension and healthcare after a qualifying period • Company Car

If you feel you are suited to this position and are interested in applying, then please request an application form by emailing louisa.kugeniek@localworld.co.uk

We encourage applications from all walks of life and all applications will be considered on merit. It is the company's policy to employ the best qualified personnel and provide opportunity for the advancement of employees including promotion and training and not discriminate against any person because of sex, race, pregnancy, disability, marital or family status, ages, sexual orientation, religious beliefs or trade union membership.

PUBLIC NOTICES

Public Notices

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984 - SECTION 14(1)(A) AND (3) THE M1 MOTORWAY (JUNCTIONS 11 TO 13) (TEMPORARY PROHIBITION OF TRAFFIC) ORDER 2015

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Secretary of State for Transport intends to make an Order on the M1 Motorway in the Borough of Luton, Central Bedfordshire and Milton Keynes, to enable overhead gantry inspection and remedial works and routine maintenance to be carried out in safety.

The works are expected to take place overnight (10pm - 5am Mondays to Thursdays, 10pm - 6am Fridays, and 9pm - 6am Saturdays) for a period not exceeding 3 months between Monday 12 January 2015 and Saturday 11 April 2015. The works would be carried out in phases using either carriageway closures, or nearside lane closures in conjunction with slip road closures. The closures would be applied only to the extent that is necessary for particular works to be undertaken and would only apply during such times and to such extent as would be indicated by traffic signs.

The effect of the Order on the M1 would be to close -

1. the northbound carriageway between the exit and entry slip roads at J13, and
2. the southbound carriageway between the exit and entry slip roads at J13, diverting traffic to exit and rejoin the M1 via those slip roads,
3. the northbound exit slip road and the southbound entry slip road at J13, and any of the slip roads leading to or from the M1 at J11 and J12. Traffic wishing to enter or leave the M1 during the slip road closures would be diverted on or off the motorway at the nearest open slip road and return to the original junction via the opposite carriageway in order to continue their journey.

The closures (which would not apply to emergency service, winter maintenance, traffic officer or works vehicles) and diversion routes would be clearly indicated by traffic signs throughout the works.

The Order would come into force on 5 January 2015 and continue in force until 11 April 2015.

Local Authority Notices

THE BOROUGH OF LUTON (M1 JUNCTION 10a IMPROVEMENTS – VARIOUS ROADS)
(TEMPORARY SPEED RESTRICTION) AND (TEMPORARY ROAD CLOSURES)
ORDER 2014

NOTICE is hereby given that on 15th December 2014 Luton Borough Council, the Highway Authority for the said Borough, in conjunction with Central Bedfordshire Council made the above Order under the relevant provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (as amended) and of all other enabling powers.

The Order will come into operation on 12th January 2015 for a period of 18 months although it is anticipated work will be completed by 30th June 2015. The Order will therefore be in operation when signs are displayed.

The Order will allow the Council to:

1. close to traffic the roads and lengths of roads in Schedule 1 below;
2. introduce temporary 30 mph speed restrictions in lengths of roads as specified in Schedule 2 below;
3. introduce a temporary speed limit of 10 mph to allow for convoy working on the roads or lengths of roads as specified in Schedule 3 below.

The Order is intended to create a window for the works to be done and it is anticipated that the works will be completed over a period within the dates described as above.

The purpose of the Order is to enable M1 J10a improvement works to be carried out safely.

Specific times and dates will be signed locally and diversions for traffic will be marked by signs.

A copy of the Order and plans may be inspected either on-line at www.luton.gov.uk/m1j10a or by telephoning the Major Projects Team on 01582 546652 to arrange an appointment to view.

BUT OF CORSA

Vauxhall Corsa 1.3 CDTi

Vauxhall's latest Corsa might just be at its best with a diesel engine. Yes, you can make the numbers work for you with a diesel supermini. The Corsa's offered with a 75PS 1.3-litre which you should ignore and a 95PS version which you most certainly shouldn't. Markedly quicker, it's also more economical, returning a cracking 88.3mpg and emitting just 85g/km.

There's not one but two versions of the 1.3-litre CDTi diesel to tempt UK buyers. The first is the 75PS iteration while those demanding a bit more poke beneath their boots will naturally be drawn to the 95 PS version. Both models develop the same 190Nm of torque from just 1,750rpm, so you get that reassuringly brawny pickup as soon as you pull away. They're far from identical when you put a stopwatch on them though, the 75PS car accelerating to 62mph in 14.9 seconds and running on to 101mph, while the 95PS version really leverages that extra power in the upper registers, trimming the 62mph sprint down to 12.3 seconds and maxing out at 110mph.

Straight away you'll spot similarities to the front end of the ADAM model and that's no coincidence, this looking set to become the Vauxhall family face for the foreseeable future. That means a rounded, friendly look with a broader front grille than Corsas of old. The overall proportioning isn't that much of a departure, this car retaining the somewhat tall and narrow shape of the third generation model. It's almost identical in length but all of the car's body panels are new and provide greater definition between the 'sporty' look of the three-door and the 'premium' five-door models. The 285-litre boot is big for the supermini class.

HEADING FOR A WIN: Luke Wilkinson celebrates giving the Hatters an early lead

LEAGUE TWO
LUTON TOWN
NEWPORT COUNTY

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE

LUKE Wilkinson, Luke Rooney and Jake Howells scored the goals that gifted Luton Town an early Christmas present, but their victory over Newport County was a day that the real Andy Drury stood up.

The midfielder has struggled for top form since his £100,000 return to the club this summer but his dynamic and purposeful performance was the stuff that saw Championship Ipswich fork out £150,000 for his services and steal him away from Town in January 2011.

Goalkeeper Mark Tyler was his usual exemplary self, with a series of saves that won the sponsor's man-of-the-match award, but Drury was the real difference and his two assists were just the icing on his Christmas cake.

First team coach Hakan Hayrettin said afterwards: "I thought Dukes [Drury] was outstanding. He was unstoppable. When he's in that position for us and on form he's a class act."

Howells, who notched at the death, said: "I thought Dukes was unbelievable. He's showing what class he has. When he was here before I and all the fans knew what quality he had and that's why he got his move. He deserved to at least get man-of-the-match."

The main man got Town rocking from the first whistle with a cheeky flick that increased the noise level before a Jonathan Smith surge into the penalty box forced keeper Jamie Stephens to paw away to safety. It was only brief respite as, from the resulting corner, Wilkinson rose highest to head in inside the back post with only five minutes on the clock.

The final scoreline, on first half evidence at least, flattered Town but they were just far more clinical than their Welsh visitors, who came to the Kenilworth Road unbeaten in nine games.

That form saw the Exiles – who had already been beaten in Bedfordshire in the FA Cup this term – put the hosts under the pump for large parts of the opening period and a Lee Minshall header hit the underside of the bar and bounced on the line, amid County appeals, before getting cleared off the line.

The Newport defender was involved at the other end for a corner, throwing Wilkinson to the turf in judo fashion and though, bizarrely, referee Darren Drysdale saw nothing wrong with that there was a further wrestling match between the two defenders. The official, who was replaced at half time due to injury, chose a stern word for both when a caution or even a red card could have been branded.

With tension turned up, Nathan Doyle was booked for diving in on Sean Jeffers and the

Luton suffer heavy defeat against Letchworth

RUGBY UNION

BY TIM BARTLETT
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

LUTON RFC suffered their sixth defeat of the London One North season, going down 41-8 on the road at Letchworth Garden City.

Scott Aspinall crossed the whitewash for the visiting Lutonians in the first half and Rik Hobbs was on target from a penalty, but the visitors went in at the break 20-8 behind.

Luton were then unable to build in a second period that saw them concede three tries to a home side which is placed four spots above them in the league table.

Dunstabians travelled to Biggleswade in Midlands Two East South, looking for a win that would take them off the foot of the table for Christmas.

However, despite fighting back from a 23-5 half-time deficit, they ended up losing 34-26.

"It was a case of too little too late," said Dees' 1st XV Boss Scott Warren. "It's disappointing."

Dees host Wellingborough in a fortnight where they'll be looking to avoid suffering eight league defeats on the bounce.

In Midlands Three East South, Stockwood Park dispatched Northampton Boys Brigade Old Boys 64-24 to leapfrog them in the league and could now sit sixth having started the day in eighth.

"We played some excellent rugby," said Stockwood Park President John Humphries.

"It was real champagne stuff – with the occasional error."

Park ran in ten tries on a good afternoon for running rugby to make their league points difference look a lot more respectable going into the Christmas break.

Crossing the whitewash were Joe Flatley [2], Tom Edwards [2], Eddie Wiggins, Jamie Hoque, Alex Lovell, Michael Powell, James Hankey and Ben Griffin, with Steve Pollock on target with seven conversions.

"We were dominant," added Humphries.

as Drury comes to party contest threatened to get out of control when Steve McNulty – back from a one-match suspension as the only change to the starting line-up – was booked for pushing the striker into the advertising hoardings in front of the Kenny stand.

The Newport man nearly exacted quick revenge from the resulting free-kick but Tyler improvised a save with his knees to clear his back post header off the line.

Mark Cullen, who spent most of the afternoon offside, saw a deflected effort cleared off the line by Ismail Yakubu in first half stoppage time as Town took to the dressing room a goal to the good, slightly against the run of play.

Much like the first half, the home supporters had an early goal to cheer when, six minutes in, County stopper Stephens flapped at and missed a high ball into the box. Rooney was on hand to stroke into an unguarded net for his second goal in as many games.

It made up for an even earlier miss where the former Swindon man crossed for Shaun Whalley who, steaming in at the back post, looked odds on to double the lead but blasted so wide it almost went out for a throw-in.

The winger did far better with a cut back to Cullen who forced Stephens into a low save as did Rooney from smart free-kick routine.

Tyler, by contrast, had enjoyed a quiet second half until the 77th minute when he tipped over Chris Zebrowski's header and then, from the resulting corner, kept out Yakubu from point blank range.

Four minutes from time the veteran stopper could only get fingertips on a cross and the Exiles ace looked a certainty to score but Scott Griffiths and Wilkinson bundled the ball to safety to ensure a 11th clean sheet of the campaign.

Substitute Howells flicked in a third in stoppage time to put the seal on a victory and move Luton up a place in the league to third – and who provided the cross? That man Drury.

Luton: Tyler, Smith, McNulty, Drury, Griffiths, Cullen, Rooney (Lafayette, 81), Whalley (Howells, 71), Harriman, Doyle, Wilkinson. Unused subs: Franks, Justham, Miller, Stevenson, Connolly.

Late penalty hands Dunstable a win while Rovers hit four

FOOTBALL

sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

DUNSTABLE Town recorded their first win in three games with a 2-1 victory away to Cambridge City in the Southern Premier League yesterday.

An 80th minute penalty from Ben Herd proved to be the winner after Tony Burnett's opener on the stroke of half time.

Burnett rose highest to give the visitors the lead with a close range header.

After the restart, Adam Watkins looked dangerous for Dunstable and almost doubled their lead early in the second half.

He went on a mazy run through the City defence, ghosting past the last man, but he fired just wide of the left hand post.

With 71 minutes gone, the hosts found a way back into the game through substitute Oluwale Akinsanya.

Following some nice work from Harry Reynolds, Akinsanya pounced on a deflected shot to bundle home an equaliser.

Soon after, Watkins showed his skill going on another run.

He finished with a low drive at goal, which was cleared off the line.

Yet more excellent movement from Watkins opened up some space for him to have a try again, but former Dunstable stopper Jamie Head was equal to it, palming the ball clear to safety.

However, with ten minutes left Dunstable finally found a breakthrough and scored the winner from the penalty spot.

Herd stepped up to take it following a foul and blasted the ball high into the net, giving The Blues the lead.

Cambridge had a chance late in stoppage time, but Dunstable goalkeeper Luke Chambers was equal to the tame strike, securing the win. Town are ninth.

In the Southern League Division One

Central Barton Rovers ran out 4-2 winners against Potters Bar Town to stay in the promotion hunt at the season's midway point.

They are fifth in the league, the last play-off spot, and have a four point gap to the side below them.

Connor Vincent opened the scoring for Rovers and Keshi Anderson then struck twice before the break to open up a 3-0 lead.

Potters Bar did show some fight after the break but the result was never in doubt.

There was also a victory for AFC Dunstable who triumphed 1-0 at home to Berkhamsted in the Spartan South Midlands Premier Division. They sit sixth in the table.

Drury's clicking into gear ahead of Wycombe clash

SUPER DISPLAY: Andy Drury in action against Newport yesterday Picture: Gareth Owen

HATTERS

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE
sport@lntmedia.co.uk

ANDY Drury thinks he's starting to show his best form for Luton after his starring performance helped get the Hatters back to winning ways in League Two with a 3-0 victory over Newport to set up a huge Boxing Day top-of-the-table clash at leaders Wycombe Wanderers.

The midfielder has had an inconsistent season since returning to the club in the summer but he was at the heart of everything Town did against the Exiles.

He provided assists for Luke Wilkinson's fifth minute opener and Jake Howells' last minute strike. In between that, Luke Rooney put the hosts 2-0 ahead early in the second half with his second strike in as many games and, on any other day, he would have been man-of-the-match.

In fact, the sponsors awarded keeper Mark Tyler that honour as he did pull off a number of top-class saves, but Drury was the spark that ensured last week's 3-0 reverse at Morecambe was quickly put to bed with his side moving up the table to third.

Asked if he felt his afternoon was his best since he returned to Luton after three years away, the midfielder said: "Yeah, I feel that I'm getting fitter now."

"I felt like I was playing well earlier in the season but I came out of the team for a month or so and it always takes me a few days to get back into my stride."

"I enjoyed it out there and hopefully I can build on it. I'll keep working hard over the Christmas period and hopefully I can keep that form up."

The only thing missing from his performance was a goal and he's still waiting to break his duck after 18 games this term.

"I got two assists, which is quite good," he said, adding: "I'm getting quite a few at the moment, as long as I keep doing that I'm contributing."

"I'll probably play really badly and one will go in off my back-side one day."

Drury was given the freedom to express himself by another tireless display from central midfielders Nathan Doyle and Jonathan Smith and the former Ipswich man was quick to praise them.

"Smudge [Smith] will run through brick walls and Doyle is a calming influence," he said.

"When he gets the ball he's composed, so together they work well and it does give me a bit of freedom."

Drury will hope he gets the same space to express himself on Boxing Day when Luton travel to Wycombe in what is now a huge clash, but this was a great start to the festive schedule.

"It's a massive win leading into the Christmas period," he said about beating an Exiles side who had not tasted defeat in nine games, since their last trip to Kenilworth Road in the FA Cup on November 8.

"We won't win the league at Christmas but it doesn't half help."

"It's a great win and hopefully we can carry on to Boxing Day."
